

Leading Woodruff-Sawyer & Co.'s Transactional group, Emily provides consultation and support to clients who wish to use the insurance market to limit the risks that arise from Mergers & Acquisitions activity. This includes Representations and Warranties, Tax Opinion Liability and Litigation Buy-Out coverages.

Emily's deal experience spans both American and European deals. Her clients are as diverse as their locations. She has worked with both Strategic and Private Equity buyers and sellers over a wide range of transaction sizes and industries.

Prior to joining Woodruff-Sawyer in the United States, Emily specialized in M&A insurance transactions in leading brokerage firms in London, including Marsh, Howden and Heath Lambert. Emily is a popular speaker and published author on the topic of Mergers & Acquisitions insurance.

Emily Maier
Transactional Insurance—Group Leader
949.435.7378 emaier@wsandco.com